

Parent Newsletter March 2019

Happy St. Patrick's Day!!!

Kindergarten

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Reading Children will be using checklist in order improve their reading. Please continue sounding out words. | Writing Children will be using checklists to assess their writing. Please continue taping out and writing words. | Math Students will be learning to compose and decompose numbers to 10. We will also work on solving word problems using the S.O.L.V.E strategy. |
| Phonics We will be working with initial and final blends and coding words. Along with learning our sight words and sentence dictations. Please practice tapping out and blending words together, as well as, vowels and consonants. | Music Students will explore and discover things about the drums and the different ways they are played. They will continue to read and observe graphic notation in music. Kindergarten students will also be focusing on reading lyrics in different forms. | Art Kindergarten artist have been experimenting with printmaking and will begin a new unit in sculpting. We will discover how to create 3 dimensional artwork with a variety of materials. |
| Pages for internet www.abcyacom www.mathgames.com www.starfall.com | Notices Our children get hungry throughout the day, at the beginning of the month please send snacks for the class. We also need hand soap and disinfectant wipes! | Physical Education Students will be introduced to different exercises that focus on flexibility. Students will be taught different stretches that can be done to improve their overall health |

Important Dates:

March 14- Parent-Teacher Conferences